MORE ... IN THEIR WORDS

What meaning did the Reports of the Regional Animators and the Mission Commissions have for you?

I was enthused about what's been accomplished in spite of our age - it sounded like we are a group of fifty-year olds... Pauline Lebel, CSC

There is a lot of proof that life and creativity circulate for mission.
Sonia Carola Porras Mendoza, CSC

The essential is meeting Jesus in our lives, in the poor whom we serve and to build unity and interregional cooperation among us until death and in death.
Liette Finnerty, CSC

I experienced the unity.
Rachel M. Jette, CSC

I felt each region was acknowledged and confirmed in mission.
Marielle Legendre, CSC

Sisters witnessing the way they live mission.
The fire for mission is alive -- we are united by the same hope for the future.
Saturnina Mamani Laura, CSC

I was moved by the "union of hearts"
between us and the people to whom we are sent.
Denise Desrochers, CSC

The presentations opened us up to another vision, another way of seeing other realities in the Congregation.
That is a richness for me.
Hang Tran, CSC

Prayerful wishes to you, Sister Kesta, Delegates and Assistants,

We, the Sisters of Saint George Manor and of Holy Cross Health Center wish to assure you of our daily prayers on your behalf.

We are so grateful for the opportunities to join with you via the wonders of the World Wide Web! Please accept our heartfelt thanks for your shared service and dedication.

In turn, as we undergo the many changes and demands of the renovation of Saint George Manor, we have ample opportunities to be in communion with you at our 25th General Chapter.

Eleanor LaBranche, CSC and Lucille Gravel, CSC and all the Sisters at Saint George Manor / Holy Cross Health Center.

Dear Sisters,

I wish to assure you of my prayerful support! May you be inspired by the Spirit of Pentecost in your discernment!

In communion,
Odanise Paulin, CSC

Dear Sisters,

I am very happy to be receiving the content of your conferences and your mutual sharing in this chapter.

As Sister Kesta stressed during the opening of the Chapter, we feel we are present with you, in spite of distance, through the information we receive.

In union of hearts, mind, and effort,

Marie Joseph Sawadogo, CSC

I am united with you in daily prayer. May the Spirit enlighten you and accompany you throughout the Chapter and may you be inspired by the same vision as that of Blessed Basile Moreau.

Union of prayer,

CHAPTER ADJOURNED
